

Our Top Seedy Gift Ideas

for people who plant, read or eat...

1) Adopt a Variety into the Canadian Seed Library by donating through Seeds of Diversity.

2) Join ACORN (the Atlantic Canadian Organic Growers Network — a community of farmers, entrepreneurs, and like-minded folks who share the vision of "enhancing the viability and growth of the organic sector in Atlantic Canada"!

Or, better yet, consider a joint membership with ACORN and COG (Canadian Organic Growers).

3) Support the USC Sow and Save program, highlighting the importance of seed biodiversity within elementary school curricula

4) Subscribe to a gardening, homesteading or farming magazine. We recommend Rural Delivery, Atlantic Canada's homegrown magazine.

5) Give the gift of our labour to a neighbour. Offer to help out in the garden, field or kitchen.

6) Stuff stockings with seed packs, gift certificates, resource books, a garden journal or some good wholesome locally-made soap for your dirty gardener friends!

HOPE SEEDS
Growing for Generations

